

A diagram consisting of a central rectangular box with a thick black border. Inside the box, the text $D(\alpha)$ is written in a large, black, italicized serif font. From the left side of the box, a thick horizontal black line extends to the left edge of the image. Similarly, from the right side of the box, a thick horizontal black line extends to the right edge of the image.

$$D(\alpha)$$